Such guests may not be introduced to the Club more than five times in one year, and should always be encouraged to apply for membership of the Club. Every member shall be responsible for the conduct of the guests introduced by him while on the Club's premises and shall ensure that such guests comply with all relevant provisions of the Club's Constitution, Rules and Bye-Laws, and shall be liable for any loss, damage or injury caused by such guest and shall indemnify the Club against any claims for loss, damage or injury made against the Club by such guest.

8. ELECTION AND EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

8.1 Ordinary, Family, Veteran, Country and Junior Members

8.1.1 A person wishing to join the Club shall be proposed by a Voting member and seconded by another, both of whom shall have been members for not less than six (6) months and shall apply in such manner and furnish information as the Committee may from time to time determine. It shall be the proposer and seconder's responsibility to invite the prospective members to the Club and to introduce the prospective members to at least two members of the Committee.

8.1.2. The prescribed application form, properly completed, together with the required entrance fee and relevant pro rata annual subscription shall be handed or posted to the Secretary.

8.1.3 All proposals for membership shall be posted on the Club notice board for a period of not less than twenty one (21) days prior to being considered by the Committee. Any member having any information, which he considers relevant to such proposal, shall be entitled to bring such information to the attention of the Committee within such twenty one (21) day period. The provisions of this clause shall not apply to Visiting Members.

8.1.4. The election of members shall be vested in the Committee, who shall vote by secret ballot. A two-thirds majority of the members present at a properly constituted Committee meeting shall be required to approve a membership application. The Committee shall not be obliged to furnish reasons for any decision. The Treasurer shall notify applications of the decision of the Committee and if the membership application has been turned down refund the entrance fee and subscription. A rejected candidate may not be proposed again for at least six (6) months after his rejection.

8.1.5. Any person elected as a member of the Club shall be bound by the Constitution, rules and byelaws of the Club in force from time to time.

8.1.6. A member, other than an Honorary or Visiting Member, wishing to transfer from one class of membership to another may do so on application in writing to the Committee without the need of again complying with paragraphs 8.1.1 and 8.1.4.

8.1.7. No member shall have any right, title or interest in or to the property or funds of the Club.

8.2. Life Members

Life Members shall be members who have applied for and been accepted as Life Members and have paid the required fee for Life Membership.

8.3. Honorary Life Members

Honorary Life Members may be proposed by Voting Members of the Club for exceptional and distinguished services to the Club. Proposals for Honorary Life Membership shall be in writing with a motivation for the honour. Such proposals shall be supported by at least five Voting Members of the Club and shall be presented to the Committee for consideration. Award of Honorary Life Membership shall require an acceptance vote of at least two thirds of Committee members. The names of persons elected to such membership shall be made known to the Club at the next Annual General Meeting.

8.4. Visiting Members

Visitors to the area shall be introduced to at least one member of the Committee by a Voting Member of the Club. They shall as Visiting Members be entitled to use the Club facilities after completing the prescribed application form and payment of the required fee and after their application form has been countersigned by a member of the Committee.

- 8.5. A member shall cease to be a member:
 - 8.5.1. upon his death or resignation:
 - 8.5.2. if his estate is sequestered or he is convicted in a court of law of some grave offence, provided that in either case the Committee may reinstate him subject to such conditions as it deems fit if he applies for such reinstatement:
 - 8.5.3. if his membership is terminated in terms of any other provision of this Constitution.

If they dispose of a boat or yacht they shall make known its class, name, sail number and to whom it was disposed.
15. All members shall render reasonable assistance to the disciplinary subCommittee in investigating and deciding on disciplinary matters.
16. BOAT SHED ALLOCATION

The allocation and control of boat shed hire is a function of the General Committee, with due regard to existing hire agreements, historical and traditional arrangements, and the need to promote both active sailing of all seaworthy boats, and member participation in Club activities. Boats, which are regularly sailed, will always take precedence over those, which are merely stored at the Club gathering dust.
- 16.1 Any member wishing to hire a boat shed shall apply to the Committee on the prescribed form.
- 16.2 The Committee shall keep a strict chronological register of all such applications.
- 16.3 Once a shed has been allocated to a member, an occupation agreement will be drawn up, signed by both parties, and will be placed on record.
- 16.4 Intention to evict an occupier by the Committee will be given in writing with 30 days' notice.
- 16.5 Intention to vacate a shed, by the member, shall be given in writing to the Committee.
- 16.6 In the case of a boat shed or it's contents apparently being abandoned by the occupier without his having given notice, it shall not be re-allocated unless every effort has been made to contact the member to establish the facts.
- 16.7 Voting members will be given preference. Allocations will be made to qualifying members in strict order of receipt of application.
- 16.8 Boat shed occupiers will be allowed to permit other craft to be housed alongside their own boats.
- 16.9 A member may not transfer his right to a boat shed to another member. This applies equally to the case where an occupier sells his boat to another member or intended member. The new owner may apply for a shed. A boat shed may then be allocated when it becomes available.
- 16.10 A boat owner, who for any reason is unable to sail his boat on a regular basis, may allow another member to sail it, without having to give up his right to his allocated boat shed.
- 16.11 The Committee has the right to reallocate boat sheds on the grounds of inactivity, or other good reason. The occupier has the right to appeal the decision.
- 16.12 Both Club annual subscription and boat shed fee must be fully paid up on due date (see clause 9.5): Failure to comply with this provision will result in summary eviction without 30 days' notice.

- 17 No boat may be launched from Club premises without it being in possession of a valid National Parks Board license.
- 18 All bye- laws in force shall be posted on a notice board, duly dated, and shall remain posted and visible until revised.
- 19 All previous bye -laws are repealed, and are replaced by these bye -laws.
